To Whom It May Concern

David Grant PR, Inc.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I have been using David Grant PR, Inc., very successfully and happily and am delighted to recommend David Grant to any organization seeking great PR representation.

David is amazingly well connected with a wide variety of real estate reporters and editors, which has helped him arrange many interviews and other coverage that have led to terrific additional visibility for my firm.

He also regularly provides solid strategic advice, suggests alternative directions, helps my team with social media suggestions, and is remarkably persistent in following up with me on opportunities.

Three other items about David: he has a wonderful sense of humor; he writes well; and he doesn't pile on unexpected "extras" in his invoices.

If I can answer any questions about David Grant PR, please do not hesitate to call or email.

Thank you and best regards.

Very truly yours,

Joshua Stein
